Dear Sir: -

Upon receipt of your favor of the 29th, inst. advising that copies of "L'Agitazione" had been mailed to [redacted] and [redacted] I called at the office of [redacted] and requested that he [redacted] who is employed there. [redacted] states that he received the papers through the agency of Ben Legere, whose postoffice address is Box 430, Lawrence, Mass. Legere was in this city last February spreading the "One Big Union" propaganda, and during his visit induced a number of Italians to subscribe for the "Lawrence Labor News." However, the Italian sheet was mailed from Boston.

[redacted] is in good repute, was married recently and is anxious to keep his record good with the railroad company. I do not think that he is in sympathy with the radical crowd.

[redacted] I shall get in touch with him in a day or two.

Thanking you for your interest and trusting that you will keep me advised as to any further developments, I am,

The American Legation,
STOCKHOLM,

Stockholm's Young Socialistic
Association discussed the matter of the judgment on Leone and Vanzetti at its last meeting on the 20 instant and decided that it would send the American Legation at Stockholm the following protest.

We protest against the sentence decided by the American capitalists of our comrades, the Italians Leone and Vanzetti. We are certain that they are not guilty of the crime for which they are condemned to death and demand the recall of the death and the immediate release of the persons in question.

We take the liberty of sending herewith a declaration from Stockholm's laborers in regard to the sentence passed on the Italian members of the International Workers of the World in America, Russo and Vanzetti. The declaration has the following wording:

"Workers, gathered at a meeting in Stockholm's North People's House on Sunday the 23rd of October 1921 herewith make their protest against the murder of our comrades and class brothers sentenced by the capitalists of America; that is of the two Italians Russo and Vanzetti. We are certain that they are innocent of the crime for which they are sentenced to death, and demand the recall of the sentence and the immediate release of the men in question."

Trusting that you, Mr. Minister, will bring this declaration to the attention of the American authorities in question, we are,

EXTRACT FROM THE "NY ZIP", EDITION OF OCTOBER 26, 1921.

"The American Terror Justice Claims Two Laborers as Victims. Rocco and Vassetti to be Executed in the Electric Chair in Spite of Their Innocence being Shown."

Be one who has worked in a factory or a workshop, and has seen his labor comrade grasped in a whirling belt and smashed into pieces by the noisy monster machine, will, for a long time, be plagued with a cold fear and clumsy feeling in which he is gripped.

The justice murder, which is now to be carried out in the United States, gives a similar feeling. They are Nicolo Rocco and Bartholomew Vassetti, two Italian laborers, who have been grasped by the law's machine belt and are to be crushed in the civil "righteous" machine monster.

The facts are:- Rocco and Vassetti, the well organized Syndicalists (?) (I. W. O.), worked in the neighborhood of Boston, where they were the object of their employers' hate and hounding, owing to their revolutionary propaganda amongst their comrades. During the big strike in Lawrence in 1912, a month conflict, which shook the whole American society to its place, in which they participated as organizers, and collected for the strikers, later Rocco was in the Laundry strike at Hopedale, Penna., while Vassetti acted as a capable and self-sacrificing leader of the workers at Plymouth, when they were on strike in 1914.

As each worker will understand, these two comrades had not acted as such, that they were loved by the profit-greedy employers, who see as their worst enemy, members chosen by the workmen's revolutionary forces. They were constantly perused by the American police, and now in the secret service of the trusts and employers.

But, it was found to be very difficult to secure damaging evidence on Sacco and Vanzetti, in spite of all the wily tricks of the police and the "high" authorities. At last they were successful in getting them, which was a consequence of the following:-

During the war, the American profiteurs found that it was the right time to commence an indiscriminating fight against the revolutionary element. Especially amongst the Italians. Great numbers were arrested and deported. One day there were two Italians arrested, named Andrea Salcedo and Roberto Nila. They were thrown into a dark prison and tortured in such a way, that it would have caused the sainted Inquisition, the famous Spanish Inquisition, to pale. In spite of all devilish plans, the civil authorities were not able to make the victims make a confession that could be used against their comrades, and they were "put out of the way". Salcedo met a frightful death, so, on May 3, 1920, he fell from a window from the 14th story down to the street on Park Row.

This occurrence caused violent excitement and anger to prevail amongst the workers, Sacco and Vanzetti organized a large protest meeting in Brooklyn, without the permission of the police, the Intendant, broke up the meeting, and arrested the above named comrades. It was shown in the meantime that it was not so easy for the police to convict them. But convicted they should be. As there was no case of value present, it was worth while to invent one. And how? One day the occasion arose. The pocket for Violet A. Merrill was plundered and murdered, and in spite of all endeavors of detectives, it was found impossible to find the anything of perpetrators. Even the British plan made to the "high" authorities to secure space and transport for the drink. The young Indians, the Splaine and Tinscott, were secured as witnesses. They were to declare that they saw a motor on the 10th or 12th story. They had seen a man drive away at high speed in an automobile.

These are the things which make the testimony of the court cases especially remarkable. The first time they appeared in court - this is how a year ago - they declared that they were not fully sure if it was Sacco that they had seen. The second time, a year later, they stated that they saw him drive past. Therefore, how is it possible to recognize a man, when the man was from a height of 50 feet, drive past at a speed of 60 miles an hour. But just the same, one of the witnesses, Miss Splaine, described the man's appearance to the smallest particulars, as, for example his facial expression at that moment, the third part of a second when he drove past. It is these two witnesses' testimony when the authorities have to depend on, through the official prosecutor, Frederick Keenan. What not less than is it because have proved Sacco's and Tinscott's alibi, that they have sworn to the fact that they have spoken with Sacco in Boston and Tinscott in Plymouth the same afternoon that the murder was killed away miles away, this is what is called. Their testimony has simply been thrown out. While Sacco and Roberto Tinscott, the good lawyers, shall be sentenced to death in the electric chair.

The American civil execution court, the blood dripping with courts of justice, which is an official government in the dollar-grilla service, is in the course of carrying out a fair raising justice matter of two revolutionary workers, whose innocence is proved and unchallengeable. But the whole American body of workmen, is stirred the deepest indignation. Numerous

Emergency meetings have been held, where small notices and flying circulars are given out. Workington demand a review of the sentence. On this account the execution of the sentence has been postponed until November. In other countries also, workington's attention has been drawn to this unpleasant justice-crime. In Spain, Italy, France, England and Germany the workers have protested through the representatives of the United States either directly or to the American authorities. Neither the Germans, British or Danish should stand un-moved over this heastardly act against the two Italians, Guerin. It is an obligatory privilege for them all to pro-
 If the American authorities execute Nicola Pizzol and Roberto Vassetti in the electric chair without the Scandinavian workington, in time having laid down a forceful protest, they will be guilty of an unforgivable negligence. Even if the dollar democratic America is far away, it is not so far away that news can't be found that our voices also can be heard. Workington must not forget, that capitalistic crimes against the working classes in a country is a crime against every country's workington. The next time it will be on.

To The Ministry of the United States of America,

Washington.

At Boston, Mass., U. S. A., on June 22nd, a death sentence on two men, named Stone & Vanevill, has been delivered and will be executed on the 1st of November. This sentence seems to be unjust; the possibility exists that after the cold date a terrible public drive for amnesty will render irretrievable. What consequences such facts work on the public spirit, history of revolutions (see Carlyle's "French Revolution") tells us. It appears, so far as I may judge from the given facts, that the free speech of the accused about their principles and behavior of non-combatting in war-time has occasioned the wrath and apparent blindness of the jury. Whatever you may think about their individualistic principles, these had nothing to do with the insinuated facts, the death sentence and robbery of $25,000, for the insurance of which they proved their ability. What a horror if they were executed, being innocent! What a stain of blood this deed would leave over this poor earth. For righteousness sake, for the sake of the innocent's good name and justice, for the sake of setting an example to the world, I request you: Help to bring these men home!

THE plutocracy is again challenging us. Our brothers Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti are condemned to die in the electric chair. Rotting in a jail at Dedham, Mass. they are waiting the day when the executioner throws on the electric switch and finishes the bloody job of the Secret Service.

Sacco and Vanzetti are the latest victims of the White Terror, the latest victims of the Drive against the Reds. Afraid of public condemnation the bloodthirsty servants of plutocracy did not dare to kill our fellow-workers directly as they killed Andrea Salsedo after they had kept him incomunicado and maltreated him for two months in a secret jail in New York. This time they went carefully to work. They intend to kill our friends morally and legally. With the help of a sanctimonious henchman of the legal fraternity they succeeded to influence twelve upholders of the plutocratic system to condemn our brothers on the framed-up charge of robbery.

In fastening this crime on Sacco and Vanzetti the Secret Service intends to achieve two victories: to prejudice the public against the social rebels and to cover up its own criminal action.

Fellow-workers, keep this in mind: In the person of Sacco and Vanzetti the white Terror is reaching its fangs against

I want to acknowledge with appreciation your letter of November 8th with which you inclosed a pamphlet entitled "The Challenge", which is a propaganda sheet apparently issued by the friends of Sacco and Vanzetti.

I shall indeed be very glad to receive your report of the investigation which you stated you are making in this matter and want to assure you that your information will be deeply appreciated by this Bureau. It is a great comfort to know that there is such a hearty spirit of cooperation existing between your office and the Bureau and I can assure you that the department is fully appreciative of the same.

Very truly yours,

Director.

In Re: Sacco-Vanzetti Protest Meeting.

Dear Sir:

Information having been received by this office to the effect that a monster demonstration in behalf of Sacco and Vanzetti was to take place at Rutgers Square during the afternoon of Saturday, October 29th, agents of this office were directed to proceed to Rutgers Square and make note of the activities of any of the individuals.

It was found, however, that the meeting was purely a demonstration of the Workers League, which is a camouflage name for one branch of the Communist Party operating in this district. There were a number of speakers addressing various groups throughout the Square during the entire afternoon, but nothing was noted that would tend to show that violence was advocated, and the names of Sacco and Vanzetti were not heard to have been mentioned by any of the speakers.

It is now reported that the Workers Defense League, together with the Italian Committee For Defense of Political Prisoners, the American Labor Alliance and other organizations, have announced that the climax of the campaign in behalf of Sacco and Vanzetti will come on November 20, 1921, when meetings probably will be held in Madison Square Garden and other large centers throughout the country, and that Frank J. Walsh, as well as prominent members of the A. F. of L., the I. W. O. and Socialist Party, will be invited to address the gathering.

I have directed the Special Employees working in this district to pay particular attention to any information that they might learn concerning the Sacco-Vanzetti matter, and particularly such information concerning threats or proposed assaults upon the persons of any of the delegates to the Disarmament Conference.

Yours very truly,

A prominent speaker from New York was scheduled to be the main speaker of the afternoon, but after the meeting started it was learned that he would not be able to make his appearance as he had been suddenly called away from this city to New York. The first speaker was FRANCESCO ONORATO, and the second speaker was GUISEPPI MONASTIO, both of Philadelphia, while the third speaker was CONSTANTIO PANCARIE or PANCARRY of 1143 Titan Street, Philadelphia. The meeting went along very orderly until the third speaker went on the floor. From information received I was able to learn that he was explaining the case of SACCO and VANZETTI, going very much into detail. I was also able to learn that he commenced to criticise the Massachusetts Courts and was taking a strong fling at the Government and the Capitalists, and made the remark that if these two men (meaning Sacco and Vanzetti) were not liberated that the Italians would cause an uprising and tear down the jail doors in order for these men to gain their freedom. At this point, one of the plain clothes men from the local Police Department halted the speaker and ordered him to stop speaking. Uniformed men were then ordered to break up the meeting and the crowd was told to leave the hall. They applauded when the speaker made a few remarks and left the building, he going out the back way.

This meeting was held by the Italians and the speakers spoke in Italian, and it was, therefore, impossible for me to understand what was being said. There were about eight or ten plain clothes men in the audience from the local Police Department.

Literature was passed out among the audience and copies of same are attached to the original of this report for the Washington Office.
